CHECK THE DIFFERENCES AND CHOOSE THE SIMILARITIES

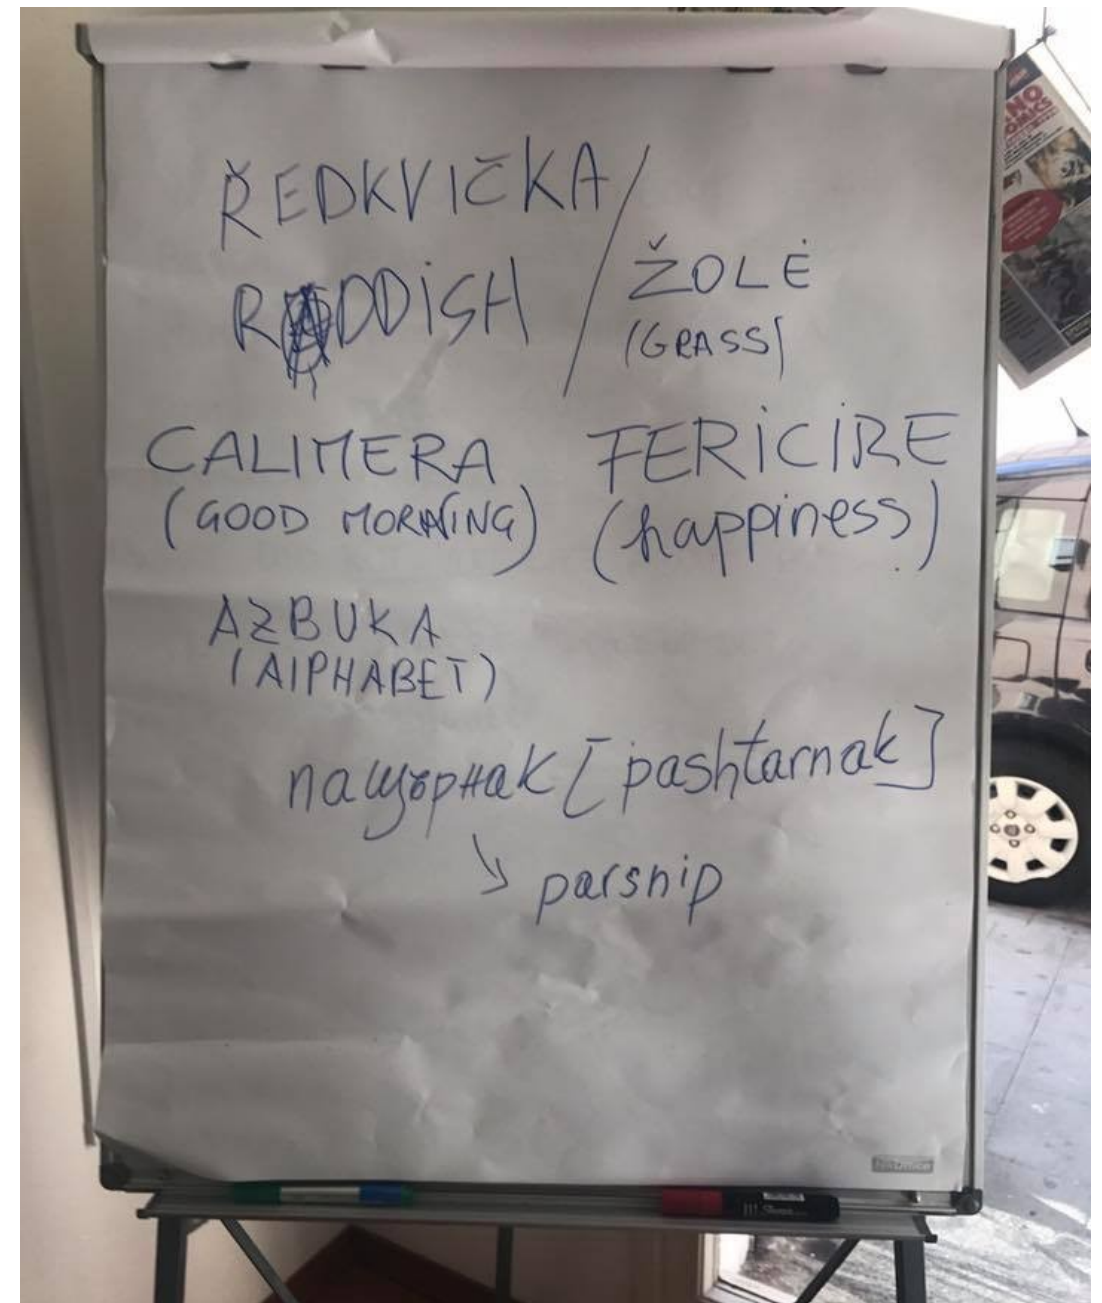

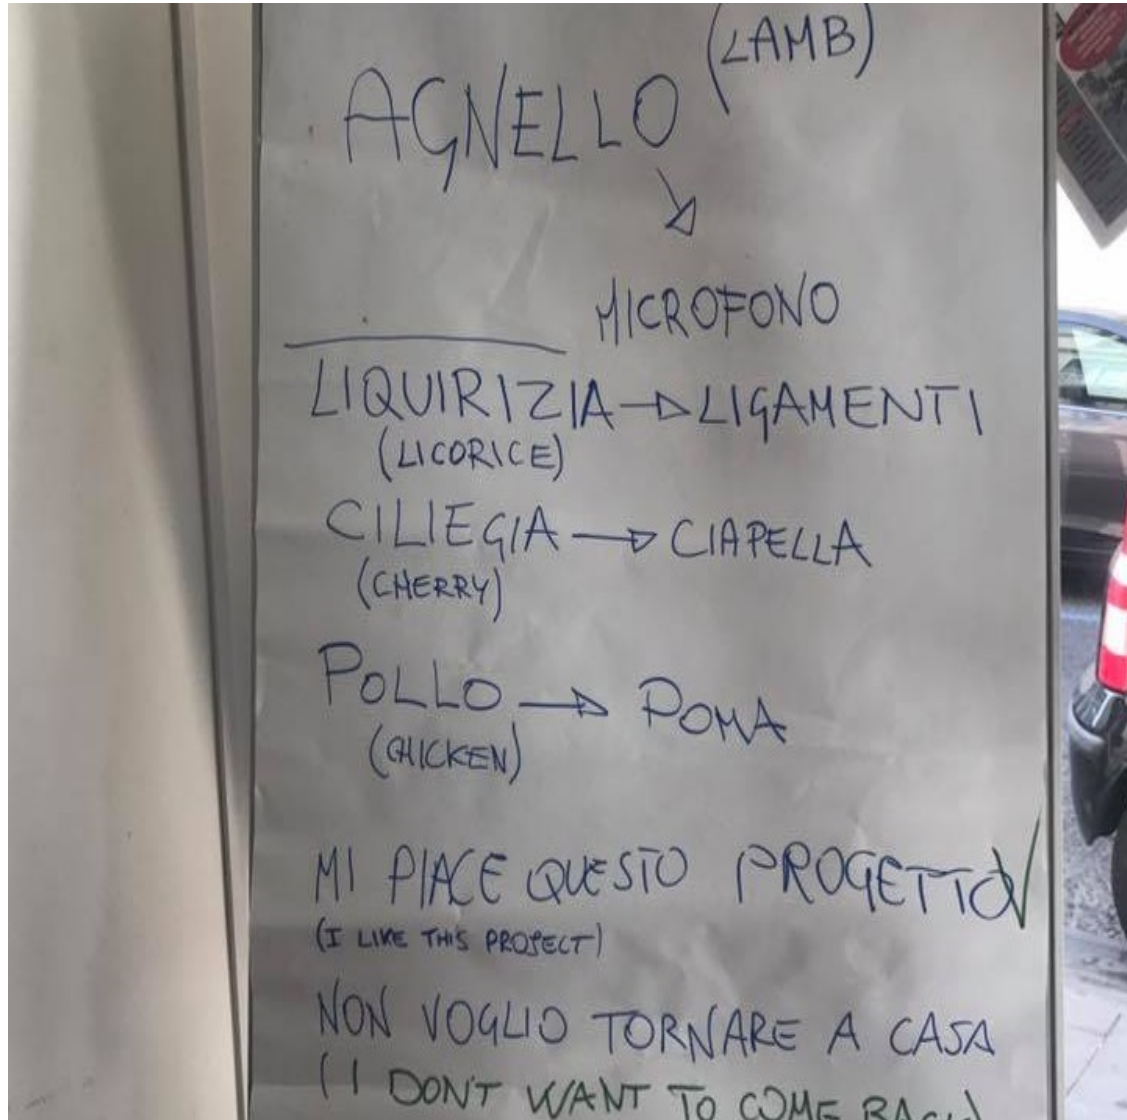

Through the promotion of diversity, we can recognize ourselves in other people
The project aims to strengthen of a European Citizenship Model based on respect for human rights
(“CHARTER OF FUNDAMENTAL RIGHTS OF THE EUROPEAN UNION”, 2000/C 364/01 - Nice Charter ; The principle of non-discrimination - EU directives 2000/43/CE e 2000/78/CE )

SEARCHING FOR WORDS WITH COMMON SOUNDS AND DIFFERENT MEANINGS

Collaboration between the participants during the activities has allowed the identification of a common "lemmas-set" for different languages by promoting the improvement of language skills.

The comparative linguistic perspective has allowed to increase the awareness and understanding of the participants on the points of contact with each other, thanks to the rediscovery of a basic vocabulary of European citizens, starting from the respective natural languages and cultural prerogatives of each nation.

WIRELESS PHONE GAME

An example of non-formal learning used by the project.

Wireless phone gaming allows you to listen to listening, understanding, and disseminating unknown terms.

In a circle, the first participant whispers a word (or phrase) in the neighbor's ear, which in turn has to continue transmitting until he completes the turn.

The latter will have to repeat aloud what he has heard.

Non-formal education is one of the pillars on which the project is based, this methodology is able to mature in the participants a greater awareness of their abilities, facilitating the exchange with other people from different cultures / experiences.

Essential features of non-formal learning:

- balanced co-existence and interaction between cognitive, affective and practical dimensions of learning
- linking individual and social learning, partnership-oriented solidary and symmetrical teaching/learning relations

- participatory and learner-centred
- holistic and process-oriented
- close to real-life concerns, experiential and oriented to learning by doing, using intercultural exchanges and encounters as learning devices
- voluntary and (ideally) open-access

DAILY ACTIVITIES

- aims above all to convey and practice the values and skills of democratic life

Non-formal learning activities are carefully designed to foster the personal and social development of participants.

DAILY ACTIVITIES

The participants and the trainer develop knowledge and skills together in a "horizontal" relationship

SECRET FRIENDS

The educational value of the game

Take secretly care of another person, show kindness and attentions in order to improve group dynamics

VISIT TO CASTELLO RUFFO DI SCILLA

Ruffo Castle is located in Scilla (Reggio Calabria) on a promontory overlooking the sea in a dominant position on Messina. Its origins are very ancient, in fact it is believed to have been built in the Magno-greece era to counter the pirate incursions coming from the Tyrrhenian. The castle, however, assumed the defensive role of the city of Reggio.

GUESS THE WORD

Game to practice with the use of language.

The game consists in guessing the word to your team, making sure you do not name other words that are forbidden.

EVALUATION TIME

Because we care about your opinion

In an educative and educational context, the psychological and emotional aspects must not be ignored. An effective outcome method is that of the three boxes:

- Basket
- Bag
- Washing machine

Every participant, anonymously, had the opportunity to leave their impressions on a daily basis to allow a constant improvement of activities and organization.

VISIT TO MUSEUM OF REGGIO CALABRIA

The new National Archaeological Museum in Reggio Calabria is one of the rare examples of a building designed and built to accommodate museum collections. Palazzo Piacentini overlooks Piazza De Nava, in the historic center of the city.

YOUTHPASS CELEBRATION

The Youthpass Certificate handed out at the end of the project is a document that allows the participants to show their learning outcomes to others, while also confirming their own perceptions of their learning outcomes and potential.

Additionally, Youthpass contributes to strengthening the social recognition of youth work. It also supports the employability of young people and youth workers through the better awareness of their competences, and by documenting their development in a certificate.

Protagonisti. I ragazzi partecipanti al progetto "Crew"

Associazione New Deal Oggi giù il sipario sul programma Crew

Ventisei ragazzi stranieri alla ricerca delle comuni radici linguistiche

Una settimana una settimana di intenso lavoro, strutturato in training course e esercizi di team building. Protagonisti sono stati 26 ragazzi provenienti da tutta Europa che nella storica sede di via Filipini che ospita l'Associazione New Deal hanno preso parte al progetto internazionale "Crew".

L'iniziativa, coordinata dalla stessa associazione con la stretta collaborazione di Innovamentis, ha permesso al gruppo di ragazzi stranieri di prendere dimestichezza con le tecniche utilizzate nell'approccio alle tematiche affrontate, come ad esempio le interviste frontali - pensate per rompere il ghiaccio e acquisire familiarità con l'ambiente e gli altri partecipanti - discussioni su diversità e elementi comuni rispetto i vari Paesi di provenienza.

Non sono mancati approfondimenti su temi dell'agenda europea come Brexit e immigrazione. Il tutto finalizzato alla ricerca delle comuni radici linguistiche e dell'idea di una Europa intesa come comunità di persone, favorendo i valori di tolleranza e rispetto per tutte le culture.

L'ultimo appuntamento è quello in programma per oggi. Durante tutta la settimana diverse le attività svolte che non si sono tutte esaurite in sede: i ragazzi dell'associazione "New Deal", infatti, hanno accompagnato gli ospiti nella visita alla nostra città permettendo di far conoscere i nostri luoghi, le nostre tradizioni e i piatti tipici italiani.

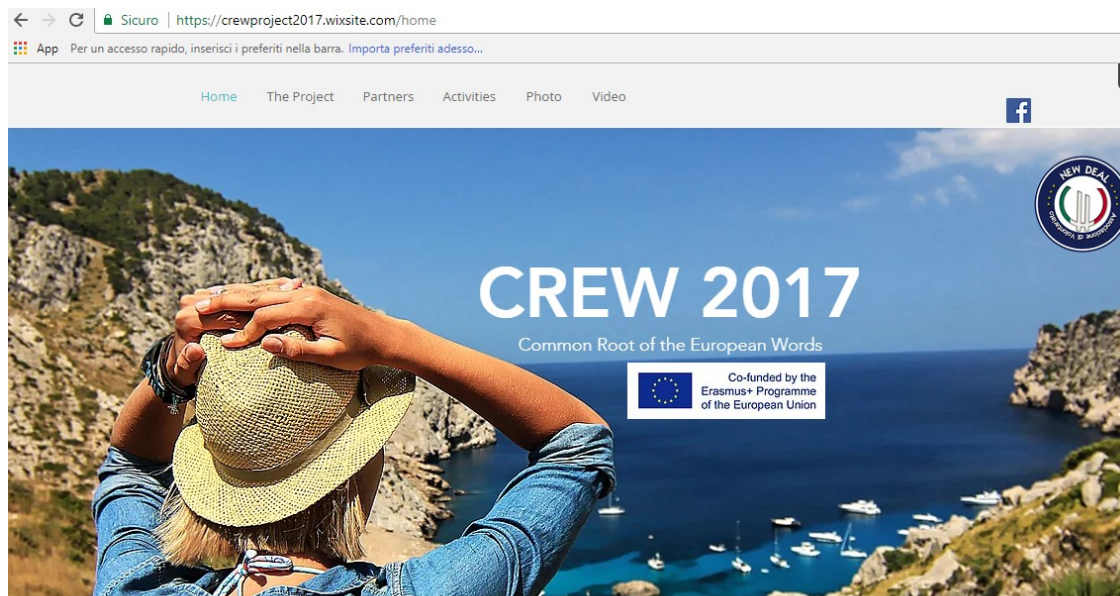

«Siamo orgogliosi della realizzazione di questo progetto - ha commentato il presidente della New Deal Volontariato Salvatore Palermo -: fin dal loro arrivo, tra i partecipanti si è creato un feeling improntato alla piena apertura, cooperazione e amicizia. La nostra associazione da sempre supporta i progetti di scambio internazionale che possano permettere ai nostri ragazzi di conoscere altre realtà e culture straniere e, al contempo, di mostrare del nostro paese, l'Italia dalle mille sfaccettature, il volto più pulito e solido». ◀

The project is useful for and beyond the group of participants.

All Erasmus + projects focus on their participants, as it should be. But in the execution of the project it is also important to think about how the results and results can be made public. We thought how the outcomes could be useful, educational and relevant to other people, organizations, and contexts.
